Governors Ball

Everyone was a winner at the official Emmys afterparty. Heroes didn't pick up any awards, but Milo Ventimiglia escorted Hayden Panettiere into the Shrine Auditorium, where they happily partied with their costars. That wasn't the only cast reunion at the Art Deco-themed fete. A radiant Kate Walsh and hubby Alex Young joined Grey's Anatomy creator Shonda Rhimes for hugs. At their table, discreetly tucked away in a corner, Justin Chambers stuck close to wife Keisha, as did Eric Dane to wife Rebecca Gayheart. But Sara Ramirez and Ellen Pompeo left their dates to dance together. Grey's girls just want to have fun. —Bekah Wright

The guys from 30 Rock seemed surprised by their own success.

My Name Is Earl's Jaime Pressly felt "wobbly" after her big win.

Newlyweds Kate Walsh and Alex Young smooched the night away.

The beautiful ladies of Ugly Betty made a colorful display.
